Hence in a season of calm weather
 Though inland far we be,
 Our Souls have sight of that immortal sea
 Which brought us hither,
 Can in a moment travel thither,
 And see the Children sport upon the shore,
 And hear the mighty waters rolling evermore.

I am being driven forward
Into an unknown land.
The pass grows steeper,
The air colder and sharper.
A wind from my unknown goal
Stirs the strings
Of expectation.

Still the question:
Shall I ever get there?
There where life resounds,
A clear pure note
In the silence.

Keep me from going to sleep too soon
Or if I go to sleep too soon
Come wake me up. Come any hour
Of night. Come whistling up the road.
Stomp on the porch. Bang on the door.
Make me get out of bed and come
And let you in and light a light.

Tell me the northern lights are on
And make me look. Or tell me clouds
Are doing something to the moon
They never did before, and show me.
See that I see. Talk to me till
I'm half as wide awake as you
And start to dress wondering why
I ever went to bed at all.
Tell me the walking is superb.
Not only tell me but persuade me.
You know I'm not too hard to persuade.

Robert Francis

THIS YEARBOOK IS DEDICATED TO ITS GRADUATING CLASS (aren't they all?), IN HOPES THAT IT CAN REMEMBER WHEN YOU CANNOT.

Along with the dedication go many apologies and thanks — Apologies for the many short-comings of the book, and Thanks to the people whose work made it possible at all. Those highest on the list are Gail Virtue, Marcia Nyman, Jeff Hobart, and John Derick with the News Bureau.

— last minute layouts and photos are a fine art . . .
